11 MARK HOUSTON,

12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 GUARANTY RV, INC.,

15 Defendant.

Case No. 08-01507 JW

JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT

ORDER OF REASSIGNMENT TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE

16
17 The parties to the above-entitled action jointly submit this Case Management
18 Statement and Proposed Order and request the Court to adopt it as its Case Management
19 Order in this case.

20 1. Jurisdiction and Service: This Court has original jurisdiction over this
21 matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, because the action alleges claims pursuant to 15
22 U.S.C. § 2310. The Court has jurisdiction over the supplemental state law claims pursuant
23 to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. The only defendant named has been served and has appeared.

24 2. Facts: On or about January 31, 2005, plaintiff purchased a 2005 Country
25 Coach Inspire, VIN #4U7K6ES1251104652 ("vehicle"), which was impliedly warranted
26 by defendant. Prior to plaintiff's purchase, Guaranty RV installed a satellite dish and a
27 solar panel on the roof of the vehicle. Shortly after plaintiff's purchase, the vehicle
28 experienced a water leak to the extent that water intruded into the living portion of the

1 vehicle through the roof air conditioning ducts, lights, and walls. The manufacturer of the
2 vehicle claims that the leak was caused by Guaranty RV's negligent installation of the
3 aftermarket accessories. Guaranty RV disputes the allegations.

4 3. Legal Issues: There is a dispute as to whether the defendant violated the 5 Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act (Cal. Civil Code section 1791 et seq.) or the 6 Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act. (15 U.S.C. section 2301 et seq.). Plaintiff contends that
7 the vehicle was unmerchantable at the time of sale. The primary defects alleged are a
8 water leak through the roof of the vehicle and defective paint.

9 Plaintiff further alleges that the defendant negligently installed a satellite dish and 10 solar panels prior to plaintiff's purchase which allowed rain water to intrude into the 11 vehicle causing damage.

12 Defendant denies plaintiff's allegations.

13 4. Motions: Defendant filed a Motion for More Definite Statement pursuant 14 to FRCP 12(e). The Court denied the motion without prejudice on June 4, 2008.
15 Defendant intends to file a motion for summary judgment as to each of plaintiff's causes
16 of action.

17 5. Amendment of Pleadings: The parties do not anticipate any amendments
18 to the pleadings.

19 6. Evidence Preservation: Not applicable.

20 7. Disclosures: The parties have not had an opportunity to engage in a Rule
21 26(f) conference. The Court initially set the case management conference for September
22 22, 2008. On June 4, 2008, at 4:18 p.m., in its Order Denying Defendant's Motion for 23 More Definite Statement, the Court unexpectedly advanced the case management
24 conference to June 30, 2008. This advancement of the conference essentially gave the 25 parties two business days to conduct the Rule 26(f) conference. Counsel for defendant
26 was in Miami, Florida from June 4, 2008, through June 8, 2008. Because the parties have 27 not had an opportunity to conduct a Rule 26(f) conference, no disclosures have been
28 made, but the parties have stipulated that all Rule 26(a) initial disclosures will be made by

1 June 30, 2008.

2
3 8. Discovery: No discovery has been taken to date in this action. Initial
4 disclosures will be made by June 30, 2008. Additional anticipated discovery includes
5 deposition of the plaintiff and a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of defendant. The parties do not
6 believe any modifications or limitations to the discovery rules need to be made.

7 The parties believe that non-expert discovery can be completed by October 31,
8 2008. The parties believe that expert discovery can be completed by December 31, 2008.

9 9. Class Actions: Not applicable.

10 10. Related Cases: Currently pending in United States District Court, Northern
11 District of California is Houston v. Country Coach, Inc., Case No. C 07-00859 HRL.
12 That action was tried to the bench the last week of April of 2008. That action involves 13 the vehicle that is the subject of this action and the manufacturer of the vehicle. The 14 parties to that action are currently awaiting Judge Howard Lloyd's findings of fact and 15 conclusions of law.

16 Plaintiff is of the position that the ruling in that action will most likely be
17 determinative of the defendant's liability in this action. Essentially, if the plaintiff
18 prevails in that action, this action is rendered moot.

19 11. Relief: Defendant seeks a dismissal with prejudice in its favor and/or a
20 judgment in its favor. Plaintiff seeks rescission of the purchase transaction and damages.
21 Plaintiff further seeks attorney fees and costs. Plaintiff seeks the contract price of the 22 vehicle in the amount of $451,237.00 less any unpaid interest in exchange for the unit.

23 12. Settlement and ADR: This action is entirely dependent on the outcome of 24 the Houston v. Country Coach matter identified in subsection 10. To date, the parties
25 have done limited work on this matter hopeful that the ruling in the Houston v. Country
26 Coach will be issued forthwith. Should the ruling issued in the related matter not resolve
27 this matter in its entirety, the parties will discuss ADR options at that point.

28 13. Consent to Magistrate Judge For All Purposes: The parties consent to a

Magistrate Judge for all purposes.

14. Other References: The parties are of the position that this action is not suitable for any other referrals.

15. Narrowing of Issues: As stated above, the parties expect the Honorable Howard Lloyd to issue findings of fact and conclusions of law based on the evidence and arguments submitted at the trial of the related matter. Judge Lloyd's ruling will narrow the issues tremendously and will have legal effect.

16. Expedited Schedule: The parties are uncertain how to respond to this subsection as the parties are awaiting Judge Lloyd's ruling in the related matter and have no control of the timing of said ruling.

17. Scheduling:

- | | | |
|----|----------------------------------|-------------------|
| a. | Expert Designation: | November 14, 2008 |
| b. | Supplemental Expert Designation: | December 2, 2008 |
| c. | Discovery Cutoff - Non-Expert | October 31, 2008 |
| | Expert | December 31, 2008 |
| d. | Dispositive Motion Deadline: | January 30, 2009 |
| e. | Pretrial Conference | March 2, 2009 |
| f. | Trial | March 16, 2009 |

18. Trial: Plaintiff has demanded a trial by jury. The parties anticipate that the trial will last 3-5 days.

19. Disclosure of Non-party Interested Entities or Persons: By the date of the case management conference, each party will have filed a certification of no interested entities or persons.

20. Other: The parties seek to have the case management conference continued indefinitely pending Judge Lloyd's ruling in the related case. Upon issuance of Judge Lloyd's ruling, plaintiff's counsel agrees to notify defendant's counsel and the court of the issuance of the ruling and request a case management conference date.
